

CHAMBER SCATTERS
ON VIRGINIA SHORE

Automobile Sightseeing Chief
Feature of Today's Entertainment—Return Tonight.

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., July 19.—When the morning sun came dancing across Hampton Roads early today it found the Washington Chamber of Commerce ready for its biggest frolic of the year. An automobile sightseeing trip was the first thing after breakfast, and after that the party scattered to Norfolk, Ocean View, and other interesting places.

South Trimble, clerk of the House, made a batting average of .356 killing mosquitoes last night, and for a time was thought to lead the league, but revised figures showed Tom Grant, secretary of the chamber, first, with .411.

The Washington visitors were agreeably surprised to find a lot of home folks here to greet them on their arrival last night. The battleship Rhode Island being in from Bermuda with the naval milliamen of the District of Columbia, Pennsylvania, and Delaware on board. Commander Demp and most of the officers of the Washington sailormen were conspicuous at the dance at the Hotel Chamberlin. The sailormen spent most of the morning coaling the ship and in the afternoon the big gray craft was visited by hundreds of sightseers.

Another interesting feature of the trip was the firing of several of the big guns at the Indian Head proving grounds yesterday just as the boat was passing that point. Pleasure seekers crowded the north rail of the ship to see the big black muzzles belch fire and to watch the ever a mile down the river when the missile hit the water.

The Chamber members will return to Washington tonight after the most successful outing since its organization. President William F. Goode, whose family lives the blarney table in the hotel dining room, is given the major share of credit.

Dying From Year-Old
Kick, He Stabs His Foe

NEW YORK, July 19.—Frank Sharp, forty-two, 522 West Fifty-third street, was locked up in the West Thirty-seventh street station, charged with having stabbed Joseph Mordero, of 308 West Thirty-sixth street.

"A year and a half ago," Sharp said, "Mordero kicked me while we were working together. The blow resulted in internal injuries, and tuberculosis developed. I was told by the doctor that I would die soon. I went out to kill the man who had robbed me of life."

Mordero is in a serious condition.

TOLEAVENAVY YARD

CAPTAIN JONES.
There is much speculation in naval circles as to who will be appointed to succeed him as commandant of the Washington Navy Yard. Among those most prominently mentioned is in line for the appointment is Rear Admiral Frank E. Beatty, now in command of the third division of the Atlantic fleet and formerly in charge of the local gun factory. Captain Jones has asked to be relieved from command of the Navy Yard, so that he can perform a tour of duty at the Naval War College, at Newport, and later take a command in the Atlantic fleet.

ADJOURNMENT DATE
SLIPS FURTHER OFF

Progress on the trust bills in the Senate is so slow that many members of Congress begin to see signs that it will be the middle of September or the first of October before the session closes. Owing to the fact that this is campaign year and many members are eager to get home to commune with the voters, the situation becomes more and more worrisome for a large majority of the House and a considerable number of Senators who have contests on in their districts or States.

A week and a half more of work will be the end of July and the beginning of August at hand. It is not expected the trust program will then be much advanced. Neither the Senate Judiciary Committee nor the Interstate Commerce Committee has completed consideration of the trust measures. Each committee may report this week, but this is not certain.

If the Senate could get down to business with all three of the trust measures before it by the beginning of August, it might be able to vote on them and get ready for adjournment by September 1. But a month is not a long time for debate in the Senate on three trust measures involving questions vital to the business of the country. More time might easily be required.

Moreover, the Senate still has other serious problems on its hands. It is getting well along with the appropriations, but it has not passed the river and harbor bill and it is still beset with the Jones and Warburg nominations.

Senate and House leaders are utterly unable to make anything like a positive prediction as to adjournment. Some of the more pessimistic say the session will run up to election time, and perhaps this session will merge with the next one.

Newly Married Couples
Who Must Buy Furniture
Should Come to Us

We've made life-long friends and customers of hundreds of young couples because we gave them a square deal and an unusual amount of help when they needed furniture for their first home.

We realize how they want to begin married life with home surroundings that are pretty and comfortable, and of course they know the economy of good qualities.

But it's a rather big proposition to buy a complete outfit of really high-class furnishings, and that's why we say the young folks should come to us.

We consider all these conditions and allow them credit privileges which enable them to have the things they want, and to have them at once.

No advantage is taken of their need for this extra help, for every article in our store is price-marked in plain figures and not a penny is added because of liberal terms.

Come to us—tell us what you can afford to pay in the beginning—and we'll arrange an account to suit you without notes or interest charges.

SULZER MAY FORCE
ROOSEVELT TO RUN

Moose Think Colonel Only One
Who Can Defeat Former Governor in Primaries.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Progressive leaders are making no efforts to conceal their fears that ex-Gov. William Sulzer will steal the Bull Moose machine in this State from Colonel Roosevelt. If the Colonel does not run for governor, Sulzer's assertion Friday that he would run in the Progressive primaries for governor, whether the Colonel ran or not, has resulted in making nearly all of them anxious to have Mr. Roosevelt run against Sulzer in the primaries.

The sentiment among Progressives for Sulzer was shown by the many letters that reached Progressive headquarters in Washington square asking that Sulzer be given some place on the Progressive ticket.

Progressives approached Sulzer and asked him if he would run for lieutenant governor on a ticket headed by the Colonel, but Sulzer's reply was that he was going to head any ticket he ran on, and since the Colonel would not play second fiddle himself, it was decided to cut Sulzer.

Sulzer Will Run Anyway.
This was done, but Sulzer has decided to enter the Progressive primaries anyhow, and the Progressive leaders see no way of heading him off. Their next best move is to pit the Colonel against him, and this will probably be done.

Apart from Sulzer's likelihood of stealing the Progressive nomination for governor, the topic most actively discussed by Bull Moose leaders is the charge that Colonel Roosevelt will have to meet, should he run for governor, that he is Charles F. Murphy's best ally, because of his attack on District Attorney Whitman.

Many Progressives believe the Colonel overplayed his hand, and with District Attorney Whitman's characterization of Roosevelt's statement as absolutely false being published broadcast, they think the Colonel has probably unwittingly stepped into his own trap.

Duell Takes a Trip.
Young Mr. Duell went to Boston, so he could not be reached by several newspaper men eager to have him explain which of his statements he now wanted to stand by: the one of Friday night, wherein he declared he sought Colonel Roosevelt's endorsement of Mr. Whitman's candidacy at the latter's request; or his one of three weeks ago, when he said that he acted on his own initiative and was not the agent of the district attorney.

William Barzans, Republican State chairman, commenting on Colonel Roosevelt's attack on Mr. Whitman yesterday said:

"After this, no one with a grain of intelligence will have any political dealings with Colonel Roosevelt."

Colonel Also Disturbed.
Colonel Roosevelt is as much disturbed by the "bugaboo" as are some of his lieutenants. One of them discovered this during a talk with the Colonel. The lieutenant expressed disgust at the suggestion of the impeached governor as a Bull Moose gubernatorial aspirant.

"But we may have to take him," rejoined the Colonel.

"Ah! if he were only a politically clean fellow, I'd make the ideal candidate for the fight."

The lieutenant came away with a new idea. He told some of his friends in the Progressive ranks that he was "rather surprised at the Colonel's apparent friendly attitude toward Sulzer as a candidate for the Progressive gubernatorial nomination at the primaries."
